BIBLE READING PLAN

The New Testament isn't in chronological order, so reading it "straight through" isn't the best way to learn its contents.

The first three books (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) for example, follow the same basic outline, and seem repetitive. In this reading plan, we spread them out for you.

Reading the New Testament a chapter a day, 5 days per week takes exactly one year to complete. Reading a chapter every day will take you 9 months. You'll finish in just over 4 months by averaging two chapters per day.

Be sure you take time each day to reflect on what you've read in God's Word. The excellent techniques of the "Devotional Method" of study taught in Rick Warren's book, Bible Study Methods are a great way to internalize the message.
